COLOSSUS

COLOSSUS 1985 STRIVING TO BE THE BEST

We returned to school to a year of change. The new laws required us to go to school an hour longer, so we added a class. The freshmen had a change in the number of credits they needed to graduate.

Although we had these changes, some things were still the same. For us seniors, we were trying to make our last year the best. Cramming all the classes we needed into one year and participating our last year in our favorite sport was hard work. The underclassmen were discovering new ideas and making their mark on the school.

We returned to high school on August 24, some of us for the first time and some of us for the last time. The changes didn't matter. We were all back studying hard and playing sports. The athletes and scholars we had grown to be were back one more time, all of us determined and all of us striving to be the best.

THE YEAR

Go Cadets! Homecoming week was the Freshmen's first and regrettably the Seniors' last. The week was filled with activities, some traditional and some new, in which both the faculty and students participated.

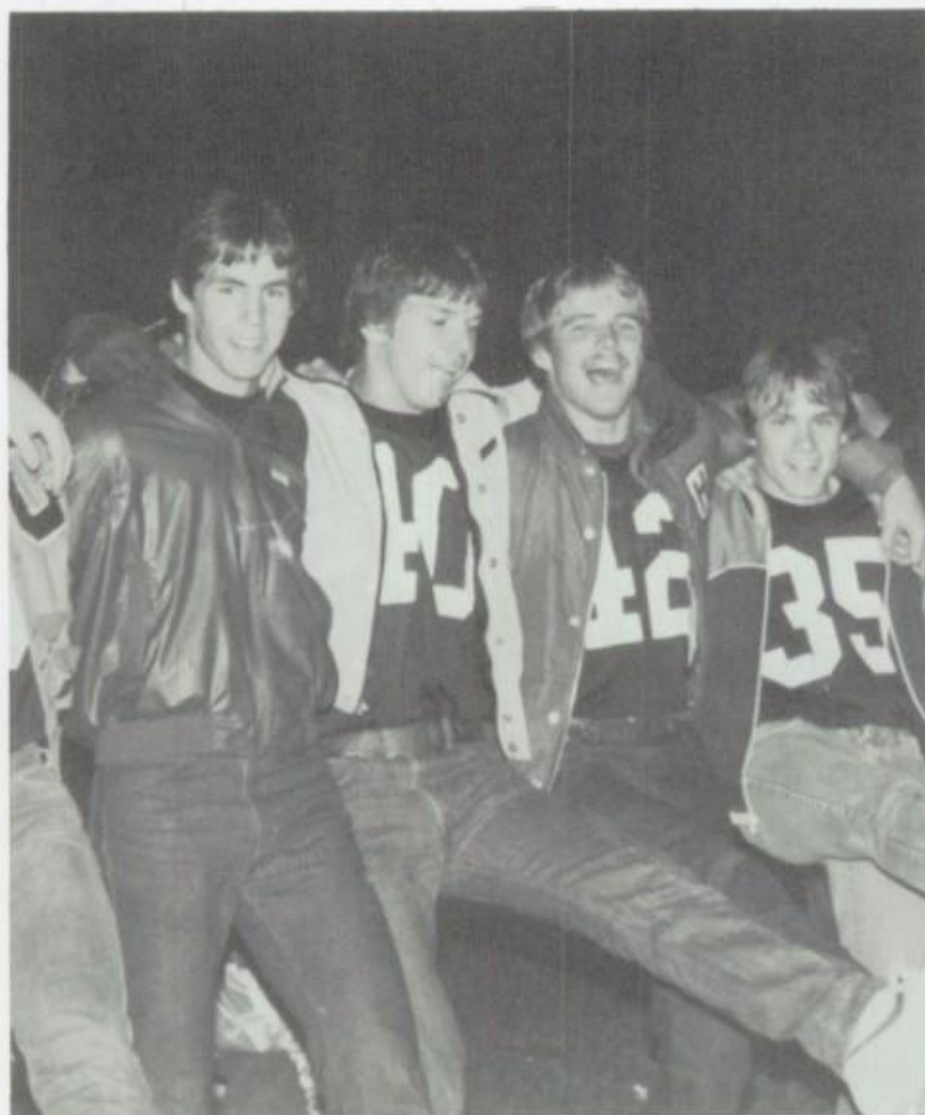

Homecoming week, set up by the Student Council, involved dressing up in Togas on Monday, followed by "Switch Day", "Favorite Rock Star Day", "Hats and Shades Day". And for the annual tradition on Friday students wore black and blue. On Thursday a bonfire and pep session was held.

Friday night the Cadets played against the Speedway Sparkplugs. But even with all the school spirit behind them and all the hours of rigorous training they put in, the Cascade Cadets were defeated 46-0.

The Junior class won the float judging with "We Don't Need No Spark-plugs".

Angie Ferree was Homecoming Queen and Junior Kim Rollin, Sophomore LeAnn Ladigo, and Freshman Dawn Barger were dubbed Princesses.

The band "Lynx" played for the dance following the game. The evening was over much too quickly for many of the participants.

At the bonfire, some Varsity Football players pose as the Cascade "Rockettes".

Angie Ferree and Alan Yeager wait anxiously for the final moment at the Queen contest.

While in reality the Cheerleaders are keeping warm at the bonfire, Kevin "21" Johnson can only dream about it.

Junior Miss!

June was the month all the ladies were waiting for — Junior Miss was finally here. The girls were judged on physical fitness, poise and appearance. There was also a judges interview where each girl had to answer questions concerning their lifestyles. The two finalists from Cascade were Ann Hopper, first runner-up, and Lori Hampton, third runner-up. Marsha Sullivan and Lori Hampton were Scholastic runner-ups. The other seniors that participated were Laura Blunk, Lisa Brock, Susie Davis, Kim Decker, Angie Ferree, Linda Hart, Kathy Lee, Beth McCloud, Bev Stafford, Cristy Vanes, and Jodi Woods.

Lisa Brock congratulates Jodi Woods after her talent.

Lori Hampton answers the judges question.

Ann Hopper takes a gasp of air before continuing her performance. In addition, Ann won the scholastic competition.

Awards 1985

On April 30, the annual awards night was held. Several students were honored for their academic achievements. Forty-seven were given awards plus those on the honor roll, JETS team, and those receiving scholarships. Those earning the awards are the ones who have all year striven to be the best.

Kathy Lee proudly accepts the social studies award.

Mrs. Romas presents Laura Edmondson her honor roll award.

David Cox presents Bob Durham with the Junior Merit award.

Karen Byrd shows her Hall of Fame plaque which she received for being the outstanding choir student.

Pat Haines receives the only four-year perfect attendance award from Mr. Zielinski.

Greg Cook, Jamie Lyon, Pat Haines, and Kathy Lee are only a few of those who were on the senior film committee.

Cristy Vanes receives the CTA scholarship from Mrs. Sims.

Almost Paradise — 1985 Jr.-Sr. Prom

The prom was held this year on April 27, at Adams Mark Hotel.

After the prom many people went to Brown County, King's Island, Cataract Falls, and Lieber State Park.

But the really tired just went home and fell into bed and slept the day away.

The king and queen for 1985 were David Cox and Angie Ferree. The king and queen's court included Juniors Greg Scott, Becky Robinson, William Smith, Renee Smith, Rob Christie, and Cassie Borgman.

The other Senior candidates were Kelly Rollin, Kevin Johnson, Joe Zucco, and Susie Davis.

Junior class prom steering committee included Brian Russell, Monica Milhous, Greg Scott, Krisy Hiland, Amy Richardson, and Rob Christie.

Best-dressed were Danny Wilson and Bev Stafford. The band LIVE made the evening truly Almost Paradise.

Seniors Say Goodbye

On May 19, the 106 seniors took their last walk in Cascade High School. Leading the class were Ann Hopper, Valedictorian and Marsha Sullivan, Salutatorian.

The speaker Judge Mary Lee Comer reminded the graduates that they must try before they could get anywhere. It's true we must try and for twelve years, the graduates had tried. But now they would go out into the real world. They would, like here at Cascade, strive to be the best.

Donna Cox and Loretta Couch leave the stage after they receive their diplomas.

Scott Case and Coleen Alexander march through the gym for the last time.

Marsha Sullivan crosses the stage as her name is announced.

Amy Richardson and Greg Scott are the junior class officers who led the seniors.

The seniors eagerly await their turn to graduate.

FACULTY

The Students Of Yesterday Are The Teachers Of Today!

When the students of Cascade High start thinking that they've got it rough, this is when the teachers show the students what great lengths they will go to to make it easier for them. Like Mrs. Buche in Intensive Office Lab portraying an Office Manager in a firm, showing what a "mock" interview for a job is really like!

And Mrs. Bourne shows her interest in the students in their time of need by letting them know that when ever they need to talk, that she will always have a lending ear sometime during that day.

Likewise Mrs. Buchanan listens, talks, asks, in this way, tries to make things look brighter for her students that are a little under the weather about one thing or the other.

Students don't often realize that those people that call themselves teachers can also be their friends. Teachers work very hard to help their students whether it be school work or personal chats.

Once a month, School Board members meet to make policies pertaining to the school corporation. Throughout the upcoming year, they insure that these are followed plus they determine the efficiency of general activities. The liason between the members of the board and the administrators is the superintendent. Changes this year included the resignation of Mr. I.E. Lewis as superintendent, and the addition of Mrs. Linton, Mr. Tippin, Mr. Dayhuff, and Mr. Burger to the faculty. Also this year, we experienced the seven-hour school day.

Mr. I.E. Lewis — Superintendent

Mr. Connie Cress — Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent.

Mrs. Shirley Henley — Deputy Treasurer

Mrs. Barbara Lawrence — Corp. Secy.-Treas.

School Board Members: William Nelson, Sarah Lingwall, Karl Kehrein, Robert Cooper, and Morris Hampton.

The administrators at Cascade are always there when a student needs them and sometimes when we don't. Mr. Zielinski's "Hey kid, where are you supposed to be! almost makes us go into a coronary arrest. Mr. Girton and Mrs. Romas council and guide us in making major life decisions.

Mr. Branneman does all the scheduling for sports and their activities. Miss. Helton serves us by being our librarian and allowing students to use the library for such things as a mock wedding. Mrs. Siddons is the school nurse.

All these people are supported by the secretaries.

The special education teachers are really "special". They not only are skilled in learning techniques, but also in patience and understanding.

The allied personnel play a very necessary role in the running of the school. The buses must run on time, of course, and must run. Mr. Hampton's bus garage is a busy place where this is made possible.

The school custodians — Mrs. Allee, Mrs. Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. Strode — work to keep our building in shape and offer a joke or two in the halls.

The kitchen personnel prepare for two lunch shifts daily, both a main meal and a la carte. Maxine Salsman, head cook, has retired this year.

CLASSES

Do The Best — And Enjoy It — A Motto For Class Participation.

The CHS students began "hitting the books" at 7:35 a.m. The classes were demanding but also productive — even entertaining at times. But whether students were planning a wedding for Family Living class in the Home Ec. dept., proving a theorem in geometry, or putting an engine together, they were definitely striving to do and be the best.

Tracy Willoughby answers Miss Helton's questions during her career awareness interview. Every English class had this experience during the year.

LeeAnn Ladigo displays her career knowledge to the job interviewers.

ACTIVITIES

Groups Work Under Different Conditions

The state's new rulings on use of time during the school day took a toll of the organizations this year. All had to meet before or after school. This caused problems for those who were in sports or had jobs, or both, and only the truly dedicated could show up for a meeting at 7:00 a.m.! A driver's license also helped.

The clubs persevered, however, often with smaller membership. Many were able to keep up their annual projects, from Student Council's Homecoming to Honor Society's Marathon — Marathon to FCA's special tourney to Sunshine's treats for the teachers. Some were not. The Colossus staff seemed to be one step behind for photographing many of the activities and efforts to catch an entire group were fruitless in most cases.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes has as its goals to attempt to set an example for others in the school as well as the community and to pursue Christian endeavors.

One of their major activities during the year is sponsoring the tourney for Special Education students. They organize the event and provide the referees and concessions.

The members include, Front: Jack Cox, David Smyth, David Cox, Richard Wagle, Mark Ward, Brad Miller, John Barrett, Greg Cook. David Smyth, Bob Durham, and friends play at RISK during the NHS Marathon-Marathon. Pledges for this event earn enough money to award scholarships each year.

The NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY has done many activities this year. They sold senior jerseys, collected Toys for Tots, purchased gifts for special kids — two basketballs, attended the Indiana Classic at I.U., sponsored a mock election, and co-sponsored Teachers Appreciation Day to name a few. They also installed 15 new members.

student council seniors are in charge of the election each year.

Homecoming is just the beginning of the STUDENT COUNCIL activities for the year. They traditionally plan and present this event annually. In addition, they made Easter baskets for Opportunity Cottage, gave scholarships, conducted class officer elections, co-sponsored awards night, had a Christmas pizza party, put up the school's Christmas trees, and bought crowns for the Jr./Sr. prom.

The DRAMA CLUB did two plays this year. The first one was the winter play called "Take Your Medicine," a three-act comedy about two older men in a hospital setting.

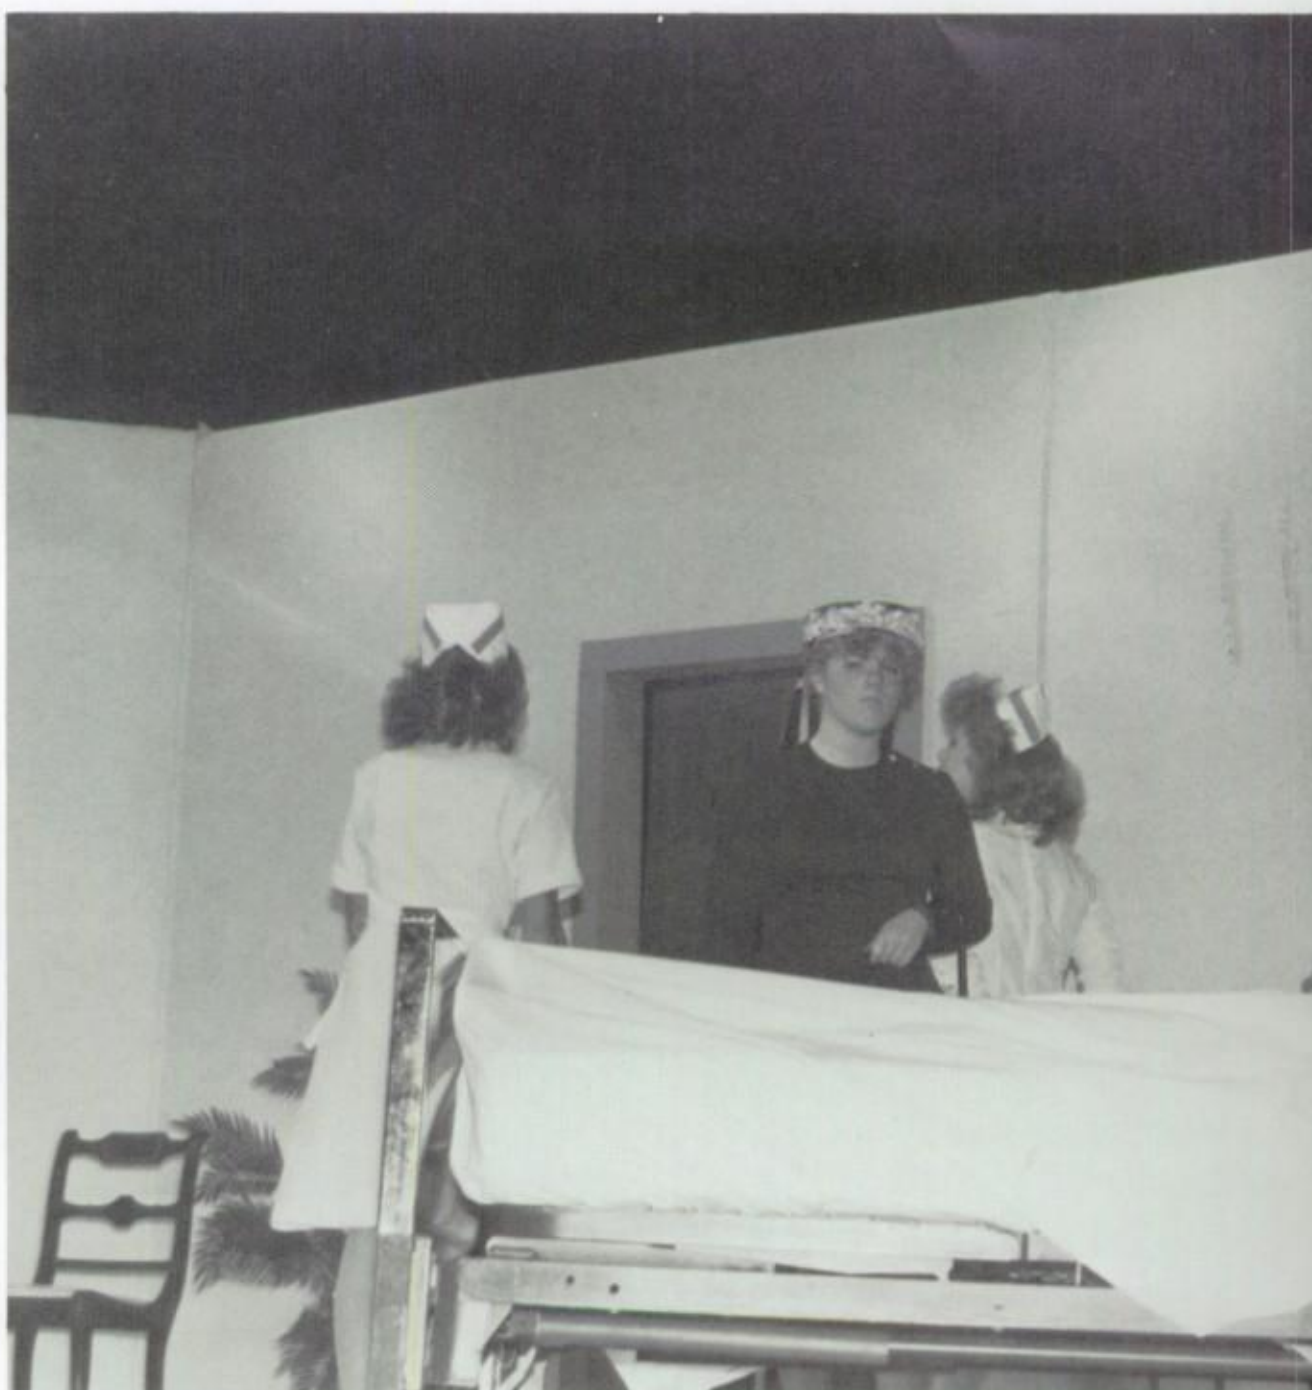

The spring play was "Rest Assured," about a wealthy, grouchy older father whose heart softens towards his family and friends in a very humorous way.

Bart Johnson, Lucifer, is making a long distance phone call to the land down under in the play "Rest Assured."

Tonya Easton seems to be suffering from love-sickness.

Sandy Timmerman steals the show as the nurse who cares for Jamie Lyon in the play "Take Your Medicine."

Angie Lynch, the grumpy mother, attends to her son, Jamie Lyon.

Jamie Lyon is telling Darren Hulett and Rhonda Hilligoss to shut up so he can get some sleep in the play "Rest Assured."

The SUNSHINE SOCIETY was extremely busy this year. They helped in the community by collecting food for needy families at Thanksgiving and took tray favors and coloring books to Hendricks County Hospital. The girls sponsored a Christmas Dance and gave just-for-fun awards to the seniors.

At the beginning of school some of the members planted tulips in front of the school. The Sunshine Society also gave special treats to the athletes, teachers, bus drivers, janitors, and the secretaries.

Carolyn Bledsoe, Petrina Howell, and Michelle Johnston take part in one of the SSS projects.

Pam Shaw and Denise Bayse talk with some of the residents when they brought cookies and visited a local nursing home.

Beth McCloud, Cindy Western, and friends share some time bringing sunshine to others.

Joe Poteet, Kelly Rollin, Cristy Vanes, David Cox, Annie Hopper, Linda Hart, Jamie Lyon, Jim Willoughby, Susie Davis, Julie Means, and Lisa Brock were all awards recipients from Sunshine. These are made on commencement rehearsal day.

The FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA were typically busy. In addition to formal initiation, they took a trip to the Circle at Christmas, held the annual Mr. Irresistible contest, had the May Senior Banquet, and held a Cabbage Patch raffle. The girls and their advisor attended both the fall and spring district meetings and Jill Fisher was elected state vice-president of public relations.

Jill, Lisa Brock, Amy Stinson, and Mrs. Buchanan planned a trip to Salt Lake City, Utah, where they participated in the National FHA Convention. They held a community-wide garage sale at the school in late spring to help defray their expenses for this trip.

The six acre vocational agriculture plot turned into a "lost cause" last summer so the chapter turned to popcorn as their money making project.

The COLOSSUS staff was completely new this year. The members found that writing copy was the biggest challenge, followed closely by trying to get enough pictures and using them to the best advantage. Staff members this year include Duane Woods, Debbie Horner, and Debra Horner. Higgins, Brian Russell, Richard Wagle, Tina West is not pictured. Traci Willoughby, Cindy Morton, Jodi

The COLLABORATOR staff published sixteen issues for volume 21 of the newspaper this year. They also produced the senior edition. The staff tried to develop a wider advertising program this year with some small success.

The members are drawn from the advanced journalism class with help from the first-year journalism students during the second semester. Many of these students go on to work on the newspaper in the following semesters.

Goals for next year include tightening up the staff performance with the hopes of improving the quality of content.

ATHLETICS

The cheerleading season is a long one, starting in the summer and spanning until the end of basketball season. The ladies competed in two contests this summer, one each at the Hendricks and Putnam county fairs. They placed second at both. Also filling up their summer was a camp at Indiana University. And yes, they cheered the Cadets on to victory both in football and basketball.

Illness And Injury Can't Stop A Winning Season.

The cross country team, despite illness and injury, had a winning season. Kevin Unger led the boys winning the County, Conference, and Sectional individual championships. The girls took the County team championship.

The boys team will be losing five seniors, and the girls two. The boys have six juniors returning. With hard work and discipline the Cadets will return with another winning season.

Tacklers Take Two

This year's football team tackled a tough season but failed to pass the test. With a 2-8 season the Cadets seemed to have their troubles. Hampered by injury and mistakes the knights of the grid iron fought an uphill battle, winning only against Cloverdale and North Putnam.

Volleyball Has Best Season

The volleyball team pulled out the best season in Cadet history with a 6-9 record. The team also beat Brownsburg for the first time. The reserve finished with a 4-11 record.

Dee Myers received all-conference honors and outstanding player. Michele Casady received the mental attitude award, while the most improved player was Carla Smith.

The Cadets hosted the county tourney this year, but it did not help them defeat Tri-West. At sectionals the Cadets were in the semi-final round but were defeated by Martinsville.

The girls' swim team, led by four seniors, posted a 4-10 record for the season. However, it was not without its high points. Kem Lanning broke the school record in the 100 breaststroke while her team mate Kari Ferguson did the same to the 100 backstroke record.

With a lot of team returning Mrs. McKee is looking forward to a more successful year next time they take to the water.

Kari Ferguson sucks it up and races to the finish line.

Boys Break Records

Steve Cooprider tries for the perfect "belly-buster."

The boys swim team had a tough season this year finishing 3-9. Although the record doesn't show it the season was still a success.

The eight man team had a slow start due to injuries suffered by two of the members.

Records were broken by Jeff Stack in the 50 meter freestyle, by Robert Hubbard, Scott Blunk, Steve Cooprider, and Jeff Stack in the freestyle relay, and by Ken Brummett in diving.

Cadets Take Second

The Cadets had a fine season finishing second in the WCC and runner-up in the County Tourney. Joe Poteet and Doug Collier were selected to the All-Conference first team.

The team will be losing five seniors, all of whom started at one time or another. Given that one might think next year would be a rebuilding year, but who knows what could happen.

Girls Conference Season Good; Records Broken

The 1984 girls basketball team saw an overall good season finishing 7-2 in conference play which was good for a second-place finish. Also among the high points of the season were the two school records that were broken. Kim Mickley's 47% field goal performance was good for a school record as was Leigh Ann Taft's 74% free throw average.

The lady Cadets didn't fare quite as well against non-conference opponents and finished the season with a 9-10 overall record. The team ended their season at the sectionals by beating Brownsburg before losing to Tri-West.

Kim Decker is anxious about the next play.

A Young Team Starts Slowly

The Cadets had a hard time this year, winning only four matches. The team was young with only three seniors.

Mike Miller received recognition as most valuable wrestler and John Snider placed fourth in the Conference. With these two and most of the rest of the team returning, there is a good chance for a winning team next year.

Yes, it's Steve Johnson in a thumb-wrestling match.

David Lane is not far from victory.

Front: Rhonda Hilligoss, Beth McCloud, Petrina Howell, Chesney Sturgill, Tina St. John.
Back: Mrs. Clunie, Christy Slaten, Renee Smith, Linda Hart, Karen Byrd.

Linda Hart gets caught with the goods.

Kevin Johnson has defeated yet another foe.

Still Champs!

This year's boys' track team was deemed by many as the best Cascade track team ever. To prove it the team won both the Hendricks County track meet and the West Central Conference track meet. The victories marked the second straight county championship and the third straight conference title.

In addition to the county and conference titles, the boys had a near perfect season in the regular meets. They lost only one and that was by a mere point.

But sectionals ended the high school track careers of all but one of the nine seniors. Duane Higgins advanced to the regionals and then to the state meet in the 1600m run.

Jeff Perry, the new county 400m champ!

John Snider gets his share of points for yet another Cadet victory.

Front: D. Hulett, R. Hubbard, H. Gregg, S. Byrd, B. Bledsoe, D. Webb, B. Neel, S. Wiggins, M. Neel, E. Bentley. Middle: J. Barrett, J. Cox, J. Perry, Doug Stephenson, D. Cox, G. Potts, Troy Crum, K. Unger, Daryl Stephenson, J. Snider. Back: Asst. Coach Clunie, D. Higgins, B. Russell, Tracy Crum, J. Roberts, J. Poteet, J. Willoughby, W. Sutherland, S. Blunk, E. Lyon, Coach Mitchell.

Mark, Kevin, and Duane strive for a quick start.

Willoughby and Wade work to pass Plainfield.

Daryl pushes off the block amongst his opponents.

Jim Roberts sails over the bar.

Girls Are Tops

The girls moved up to the top this year with some outstanding performances and placings. They won the County competition and tied with Greencastle in the conference contest.

Hurdler Kim Mitchell broke the school record with 48.5 for the 300m.

Ten team members were in the sectionals with Freshman Kristi Sykes moving on to the regionals in the high jump.

With the majority of the team returning, the lady Cadets will have high hopes again next year.

Kim Mitchell did a consistently good job in the 300m hurdles event.

Sophomore Kim Hiland places reliably well for her team in both the 1600m and the 800m.

Michele Casady shows the form that helped her win the county competition in the shot put and place 3rd in the conference.

Annie finishes first.

Dawn Barger makes the last hurdle.

Linda Hart concentrates — what it takes to throw the discus.

Front: Ronnie Jo Myers, Dawn Settles, Donna LaCour, Kelly Woodley, Ann Hopper, Kim Mitchell, Lindsey Moore, Cindy Perry, Susie Smyth, Stephanie Hoop, Back: Coach Girton, Kristi Sykes, Dawn Barger, Leigh Ann Taft, Kim Hiland, Tammy Franklin, Shannon Jarrell, Tammye Higgins, Linda Hart, Michele Casady, Dee Myers, Kari Ferguson, Shannon Rader.

Hard Way To Go

The varsity baseball team had a hard way to go this season. The team could only muster four wins.

Bryan Sallee was the only Cadet named to the all-conference team.

With Bryan and three other key seniors gone, next year looks quite questionable.

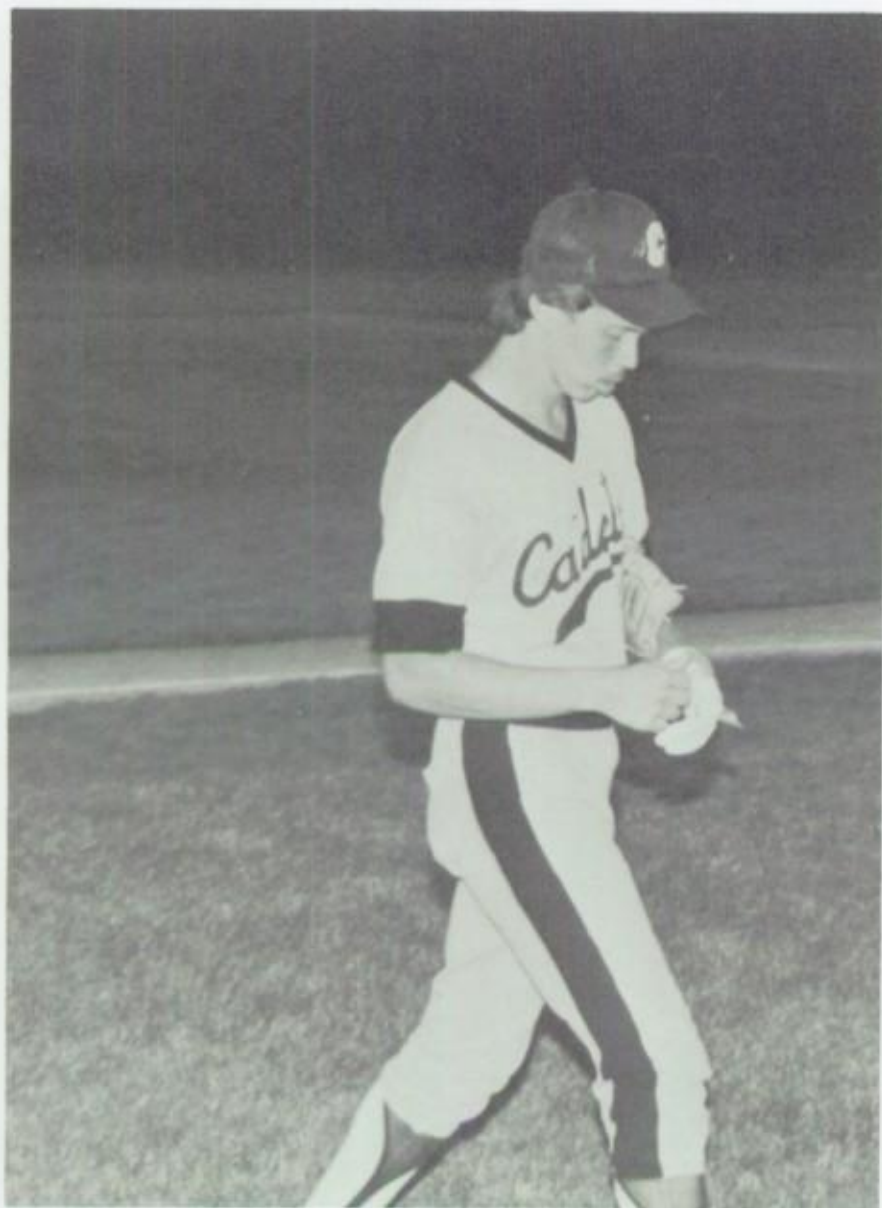

Dan Stevenson swings the bat to no avail.

Front: Jerry Faletic, Tom Earls, Bryan Sallee, Dick Gregg, Rob Christie, Greg Scott, Mgr. Kent Neier. Back: Coach Parks, Bob Durham, William Smith, Richard Wagle, Brad Miller, Dan Stevenson, Greg Cook, and Russell Brock.

Richard Wagle walks in after a rough inning on the mound.

Bryan Sallee, leader on the field.

Reserve Winless

The reserve baseball team didn't win a game. They lost a few close ones but really never got on track. Most of this was due to players being pulled up to varsity at different times.

They Took It All

The boys and girls track teams were both champions this year. The girls took the County Championship and tied with Danville for the WCC Championship. The boys cruised through the County winning by thirty plus points over second-place Plainfield. The boys then went to the WCC meet and breezed through, winning by ninety-four and one half points over second-place Greencastle.

NOT FORGOTTEN

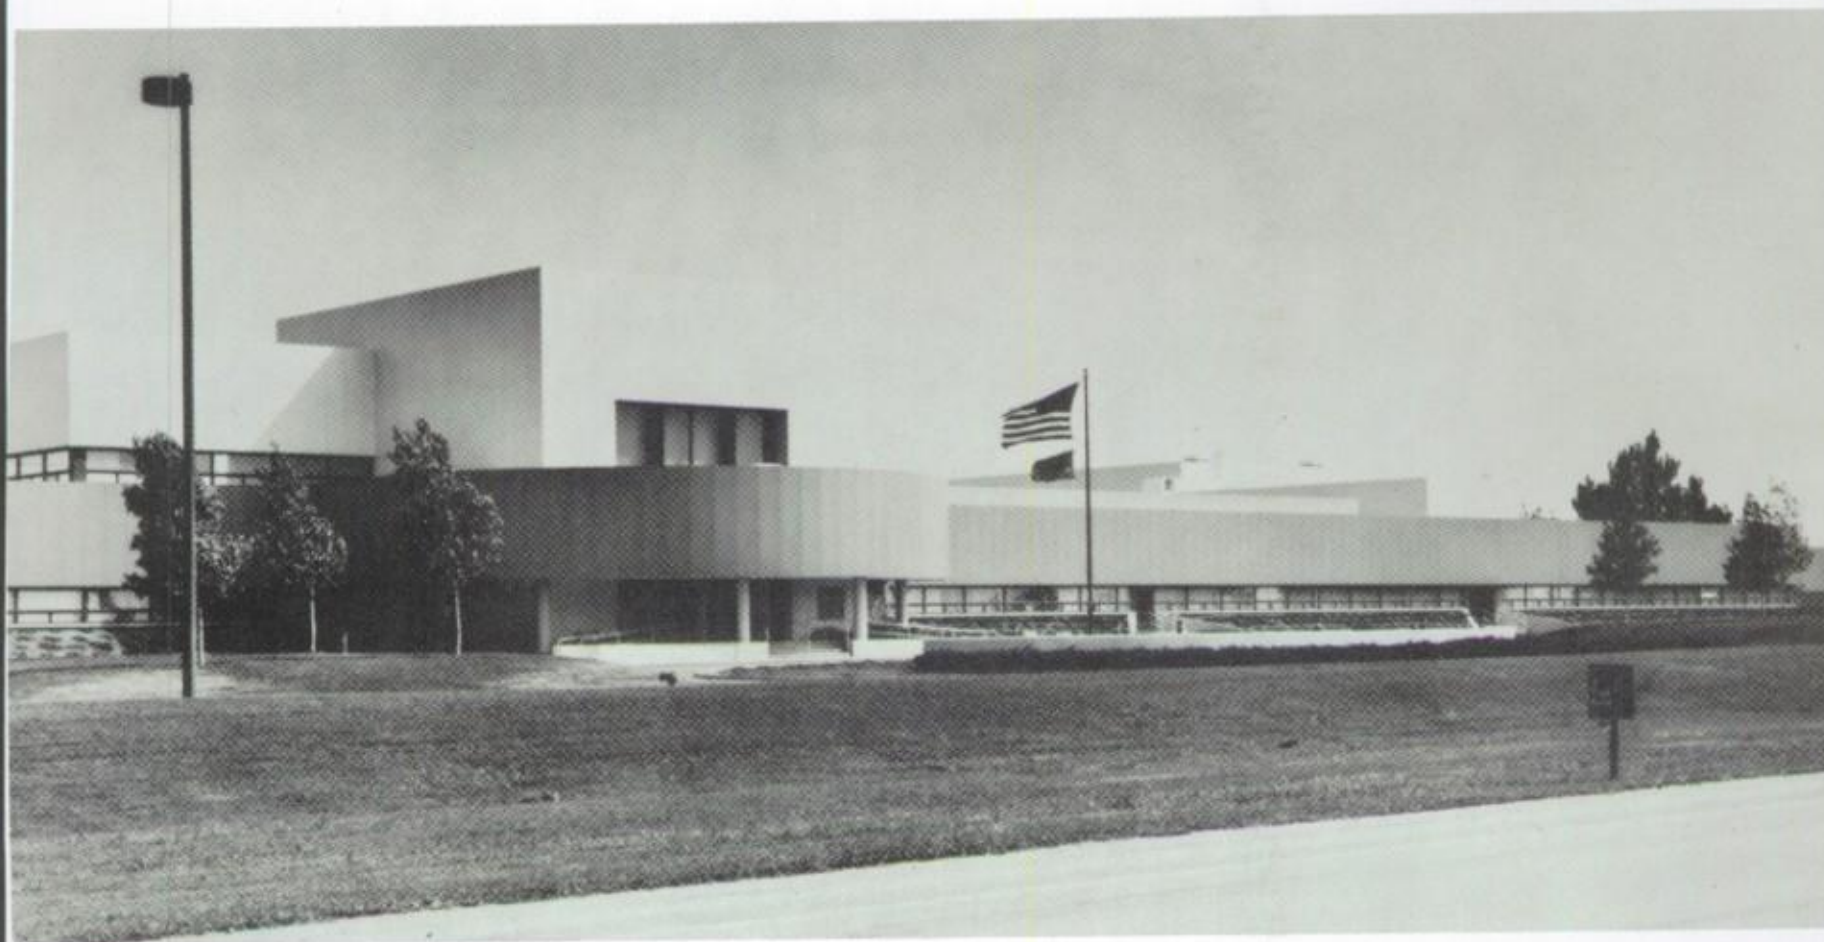

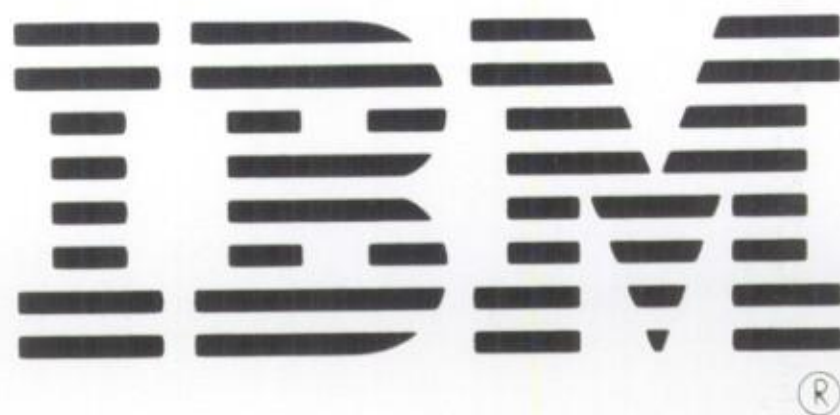

As we go about from day to day,
We know how we feel but just can't say,
We feel now as others have before,
Like fighting a friend then slamming the door.
It's not a fight that lost this friend,
'Twas just an act we cannot understand.
Even though we must go on,
The memories of friendship remain.

The end of school is a hectic time at Cascade. How do we prepare to say goodbye? Well take a look for yourself . . .

From the beginning . . .

It's really over!

Cleaning out lockers is the most thrilling event for these two.

to the end.

Friends We Leave Behind

The best of friends.

For these seniors, it's really over.

These guys show the craziness of the last day.

It was time for the last day of the school year. Students cleaned out their lockers, turned in books, and said goodbye to friends for another summer.

For the seniors, they said goodbye to some of their friends forever. They had graduated and were now on their own. They had learned a lot and it was time to show the world what they could do.

The underclassmen would return. They would study hard and participate in the sports in which they excel. Everyone had tried hard this year, and whether it be at some college, on a job, or back here at Cascade, they would all once again strive to be the best.

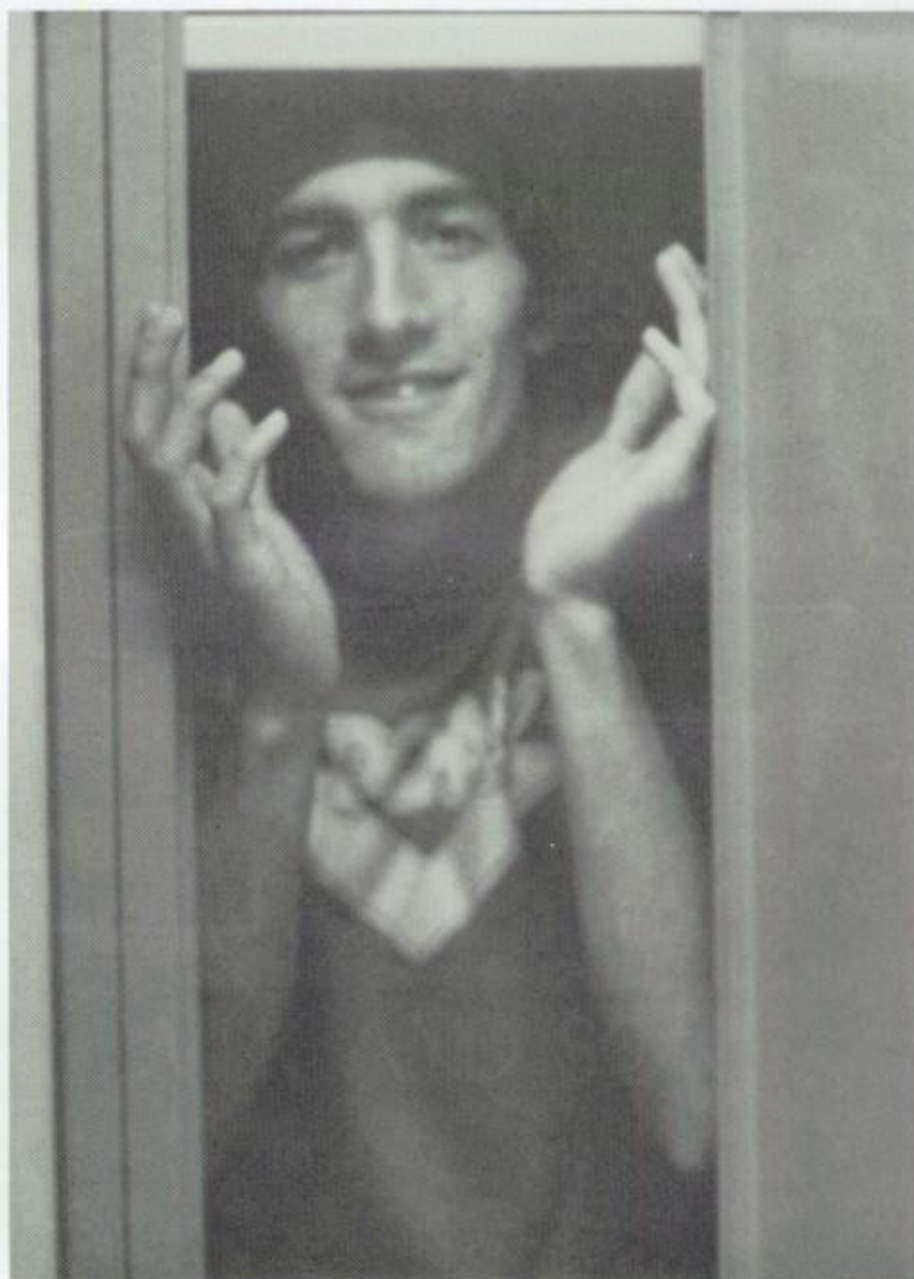

It's summertime!

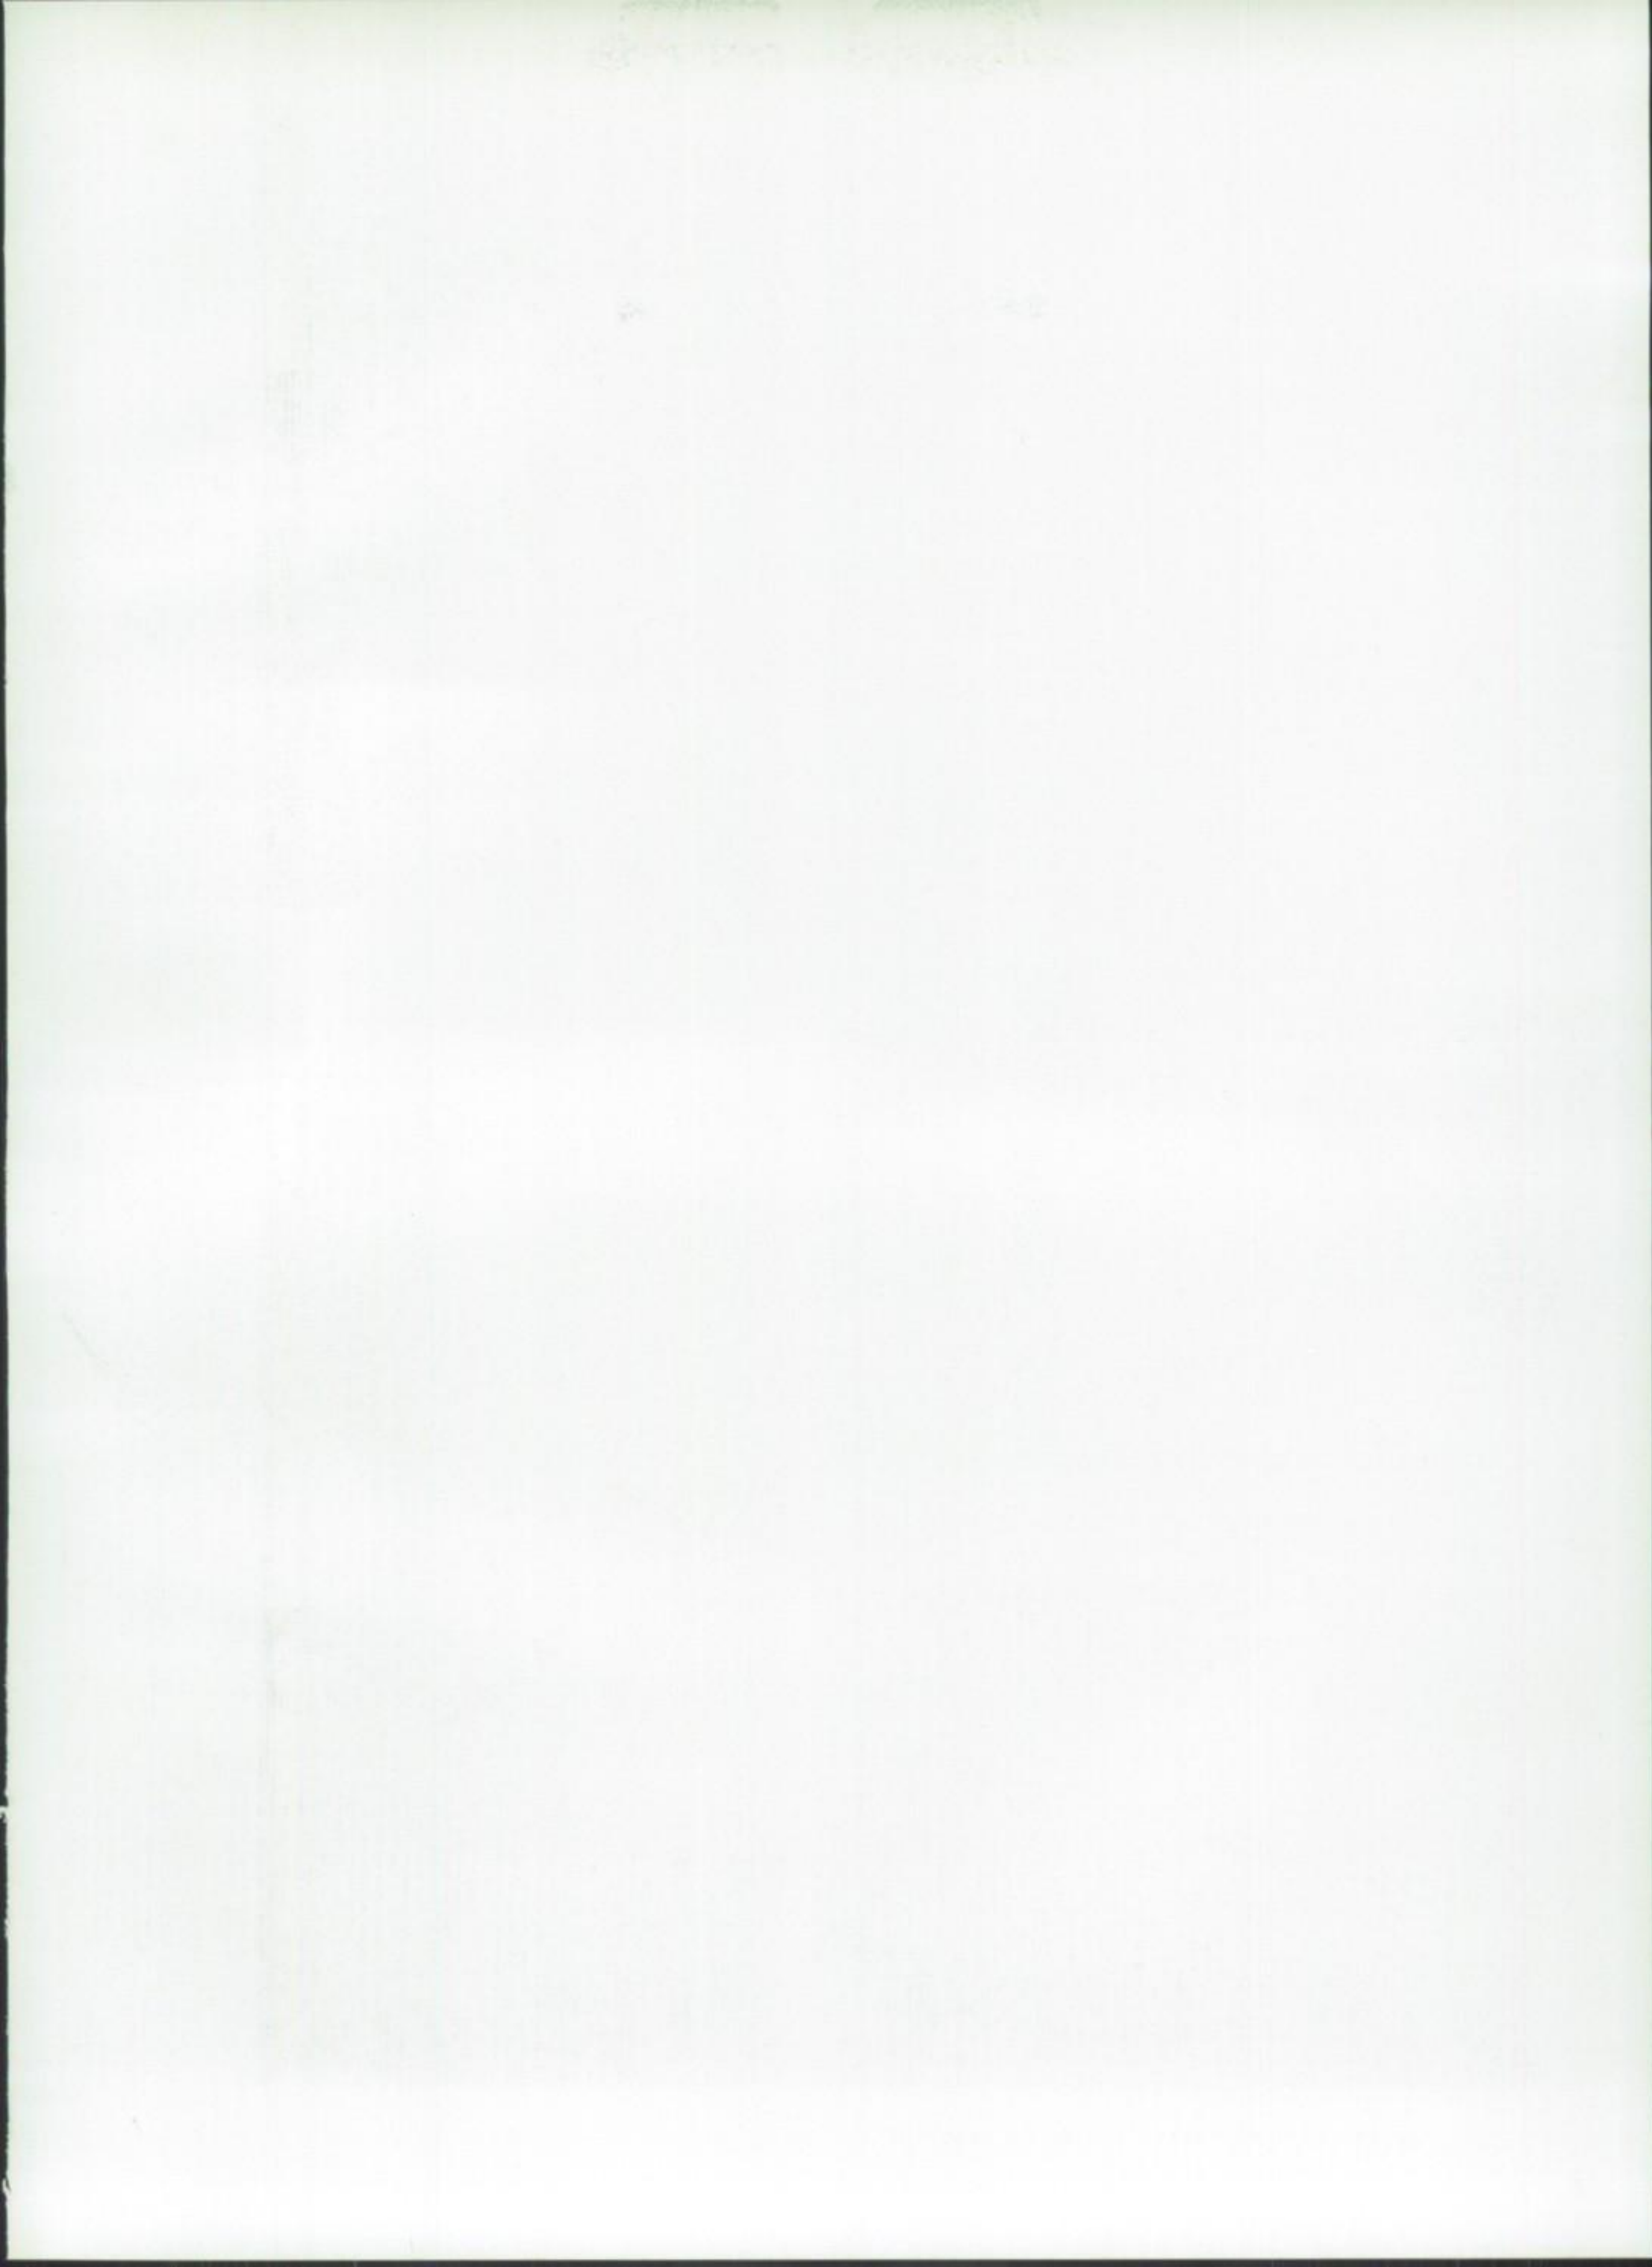

Are they really glad to get rid of their books?

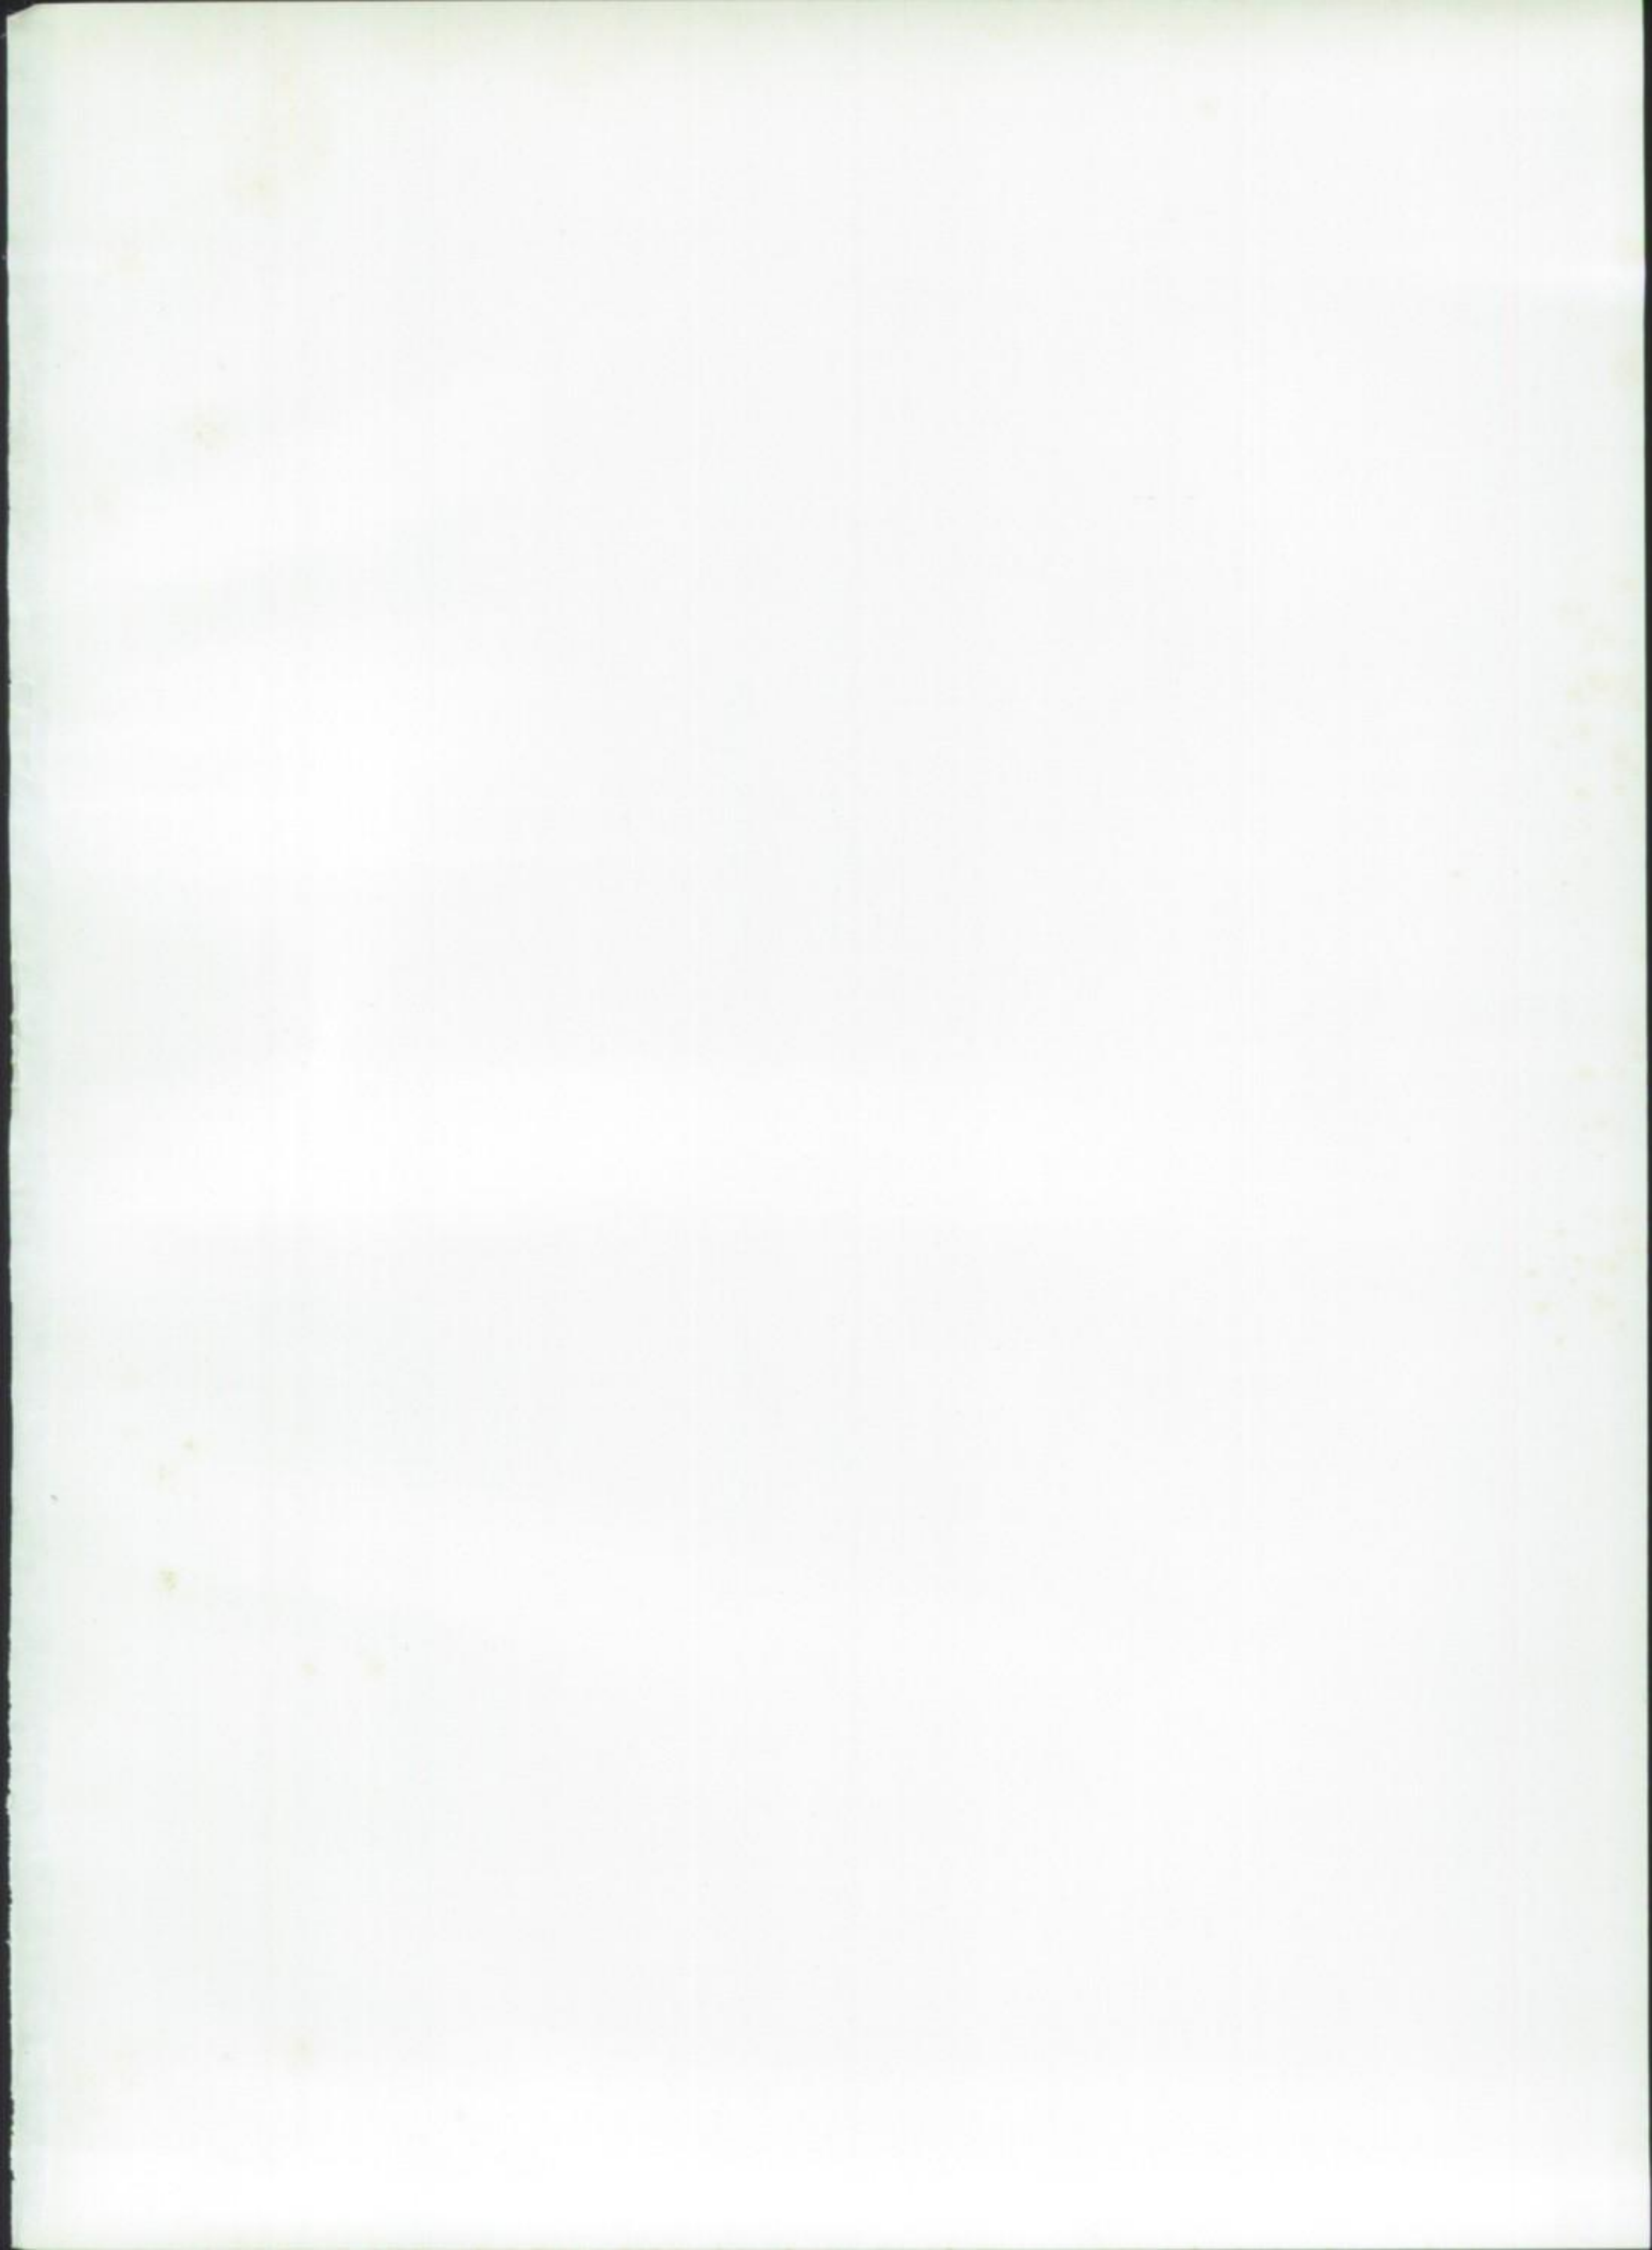

Did they really want to put them on the table?

Please let me stay.

JOSTENS
